Town Election Next Tuesday

It was "down the home stretch" this week, as candidates for town offices face the "hour of decision" scheduled for next Tuesday. On that date, June 13, the voters of the incorporated town will go to the polls and name a mayor and six Town Council members.

There is considerable interest in this election, and a record vote of up to 1475 is predicted.

For one top office, that of Mayor, there are two candidates. In order as listed on the official ballot, are Grover E. Smith and Dr. S. R. Lawson. Mr. Smith is a former Council member, and an employee of the State in the Department of Motor Vehicles. He has had experience in the affairs of the Town, and has made an active campaign.

Dr. Lawson led the balloting for the Town Council two years ago, and has made an impressive record as Councilman. He is chairman of the Street Committee. He is an active civic leader.

There are eight candidates for the six places on the Town Council. They are, in the order listed on the official ballot:

E. LeRoy Smith,
John Garrett
Mrs. Calvin Robinson
J. T. Almond
Ivey Holland
T. Randolph Gilbert
Henry B. Pack
C. Lewis McDearmon.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Garrett are seeking office for the first time. Mr. McDearmon is a former Councilman, who did not offer two years ago, and the remaining five are incumbents.

Polling places will run on Eastern Standard Time, from 6 A. M. to 7 P. M.

The offices are for two year terms.
